Valentine's weekend begins with a complimentary wine reception on Friday, February 11th from 5-6:30 p.m. that features relaxing chair massages to help couples unwind for the weekend. On Friday and Saturday evenings, Executive Chef Charles Vosburgh will host a romantic dinner for $110 per person in The Rice House, offering tantalizing menu items, stunning red roses, and live music. The meal will begin with Wild Mushroom Soup with Mascarpone Dumplings and Portabella Crisps and Baked Goat Cheese with Mesclun Greens, Sweet Peppers, Gold Tomatoes, and Port Wine Vinaigrette. For the entrée, guests may choose between Grilled Bone-In Angus Rib Eye with Sauce Merlot, Roasted Garlic Potatoes, Haricots Verts Sauté and Vegetables Brunoises or Roasted Blue Crab Crusted Gulf Black Grouper Fillet with Salsify and Lemon-Caper Sauce, Whipped Potatoes and Asparagus Noisette. For dessert, diners can indulge in Frozen Grand Marnier Soufflé with Raspberry Coulis and Champagne. During dinner, the wonderful sounds of Keenan Blount & Friends will fill the air and encourage guests to get out of their seats and dance. After the meal, lovebirds can cozy up together during a moonlight carriage ride from The Rice House to The Ruins, the remains of the original lavish estate, where they will end the evening with a long stemmed rose and champagne toast under the stars by firelight.

Couples who would like to stay secluded together in their luxury cottages can opt to arrange a private fireside dinner. The four-course dinners cost $120 per person, plus tax and gratuity, and are served by a private butler. Couples have a variety of options to choose from when deciding on a menu. Crispy Fried Maine Lobster Tail and a Chilled Jumbo Gulf Shrimp Cocktail are available for appetizers. There are three choices for the salad course, and entrées range from a variety of steaks, to pork, duck and seafood. The meal is ended on a sweet note with a choice of one of five dessert options. These intimate dinners provide the perfect opportunity for couples to reconnect while enjoying a cozy gourmet meal. The resort's Fairy Godmother can bring the romance to the next level by decorating the table and living room with candles and rose petals for added ambiance.

Arranging special dinners is not all the Fairy Godmother can do. With a wave of her magic wand, she is guaranteed to make any stay at Barnsley Gardens Resort even more memorable. The Fairy Godmother is a year-round fixture who spreads joy and kindness; she can even help plan a romantic stay if a person is not sure where to begin. Her favorite endeavor is to assist men with creating an unforgettable, once-upon-a-time proposal for the women of their dreams. With hundreds of proposals under her wings, the Fairy Godmother is an expert at working with individuals to make each proposal special and unique to a couple.

For couples who are already married and would like to celebrate a special occasion or just reconnect with one another, she recommends trying one of her Love Spells. From setting up an intimate fireside in-room dinner to sprinkling rose petals on the bed or setting the atmosphere for a relaxing bubble bath with champagne, candles and balloons, nothing is out of her reach – as long as she has a few days' advance notice. If a couple would like to recreate a meaningful moment, the Fairy Godmother will help take the couple back to that special time or place.

For the couple that already has Valentine's Weekend plans, Barnsley Gardens Resort offers the perfect gift for a wine-lover. On Saturday, February 26th at 7:00 p.m., the resort will be hosting a wine dinner featuring vintages by Hess Family Vineyards that will be expertly paired with creations from Executive Chef Charles Vosburgh. The price of the dinner is $120 per person and can be reserved by calling 877-773-2447.

The resort's history is filled with romance and enchantment. In fact, it was built by a man for the love of his wife and was once owned by European royalty. Today, the 3,300-acre resort offers couples cozy cottage accommodations complete with fireplaces and a variety of amenities that include golf, horseback riding, tennis, scenic hiking trails, lawn games, canoeing and kayaking, and paintball. Couples looking for a more low-key weekend can relax at the resort's luxurious European spa where they can indulge in a soothing couples' massage or arrange a special in-room massage. Fire pits dot the property and guests are encouraged to gather around to make S'mores. At Barnsley, romance touches everything, from the heirloom gardens to the blue and yellow irises that were planted by a prince for his princess.
